Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

A DEBATE ON TEMPERANCE.

The Senate Takes Up the Bill Subjecting Imported Liquors to the Provisions of the Laws of the Several States—The House Still Talking Tariff—Other National News.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The senate yesterday after routine business, took up the bill reported from the judiciary committee, subjecting imported liquors to the provisions of the laws of the several states. The bill provides that "No state shall be held to be limited or restrained in its power to prohibit, regulate, control or tax the sale, keeping for sale, or the transportation, as an article of commerce or otherwise, to be delivered within its own limits of any fermented, distilled, or other intoxicating liquids or liquors by reason of the fact that the same have been imported into such a state from beyond its limits, whether there shall or shall not have been paid thereon any tax, duty, impost or excise to the United States."

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, who had introduced the bill in the first instance, and had afterwards reported it back, addressed the senate in explanation and advocacy of it, stating that it was made necessary by the recent decision of the supreme court on that subject. It was a response to the suggestion contained in that decision that congress could permit the exercise of the restraining power of a state, and it was for the purpose of giving that permission that the bill had been introduced and reported. The effect of it would be to have each state in the Union to determine for itself what its policy should be in regard to the traffic in intoxicating liquors.

Under that decision of the supreme court the state of Iowa could not prevent the citizens of other states, or the subjects of Great Britain, France or Germany, sending intoxicating liquors into Iowa and having them sold there in the original packages by agents. At the present time original package saloons were being organized in this state. The package might be a pint or a half pint of whisky, or a keg or a bottle of beer. It was to put a stop to such practice and to recognize in every state the power to regulate its own internal police that the bill was reported.

Mr. Vest said that, as a member of the judiciary committee, he had not been able to agree with the majority in reporting the bill, because it would sweep away the exclusive jurisdiction of United States over interstate commerce.

The supreme court had decided that the power of congress over interstate commerce was an exclusive power, and could not be delegated. Mr. Vest sent to the clerk's desk and had read a report of the judiciary committee in the last congress, laying down the principle for which he contended. Mr. Ingalls and Mr. Edmunds called for the reading of the minority report, and it was read, dissenting from the views of the majority and signed by Messrs. Wilson of Iowa, Ingalls, Edmunds and Hoar.

Mr. Gray agreed with Mr. Vest's argument; but he asked whether the difficulty could not be got over by an affirmative declaration of congress that intoxicating spirits were not an article of interstate commerce.

Mr. Vest did not think so. If that were done as to one article of commerce for one state, congress would be asked to do it as to other articles for other states.

Mr. Edmunds suggested the case of a state prohibiting the entrance of lepers, the transportation of whom (as of all other passengers) was a question of interstate commerce.

Mr. Vest said that that did not touch the case at all, because the supreme court had decided that the commercial clause of the constitution never was intended, and never could be intended to take away from states their reserved police power to protect the lives and health of their own citizens.

Mr. McPherson asked Mr. Vest whether the right to import an article implied the right to sell it.

Mr. Vest replied in the affirmative, and quoted from the decision of Mr. Justice Matthews, of the supreme court, in the case of Ward against Maryland, to that effect.

Mr. Hoar argued in favor of the bill. If the bill was not within the legislative power of congress, then there was no more miserable nation on the face of the earth than the United States.

Mr. Hiscock asked Mr. Hoar whether, if a state desired to exclude, not liquors, but manufacturers of wool, it was within the power of congress to delegate to states the power to do so. Mr. Hoar replied that he did not go quite that far; but the question involved was on the boundary lines between two conflicting powers—the police power of the state and the exclusive power of congress over interstate commerce.

Mr. Hiscock assumed that the presence of the bill was due to the fact that, unless it became a law, the state would be limited or restrained in its power over the subject. He accepted very doubtfully the proposition that congress had the constitutional power to prohibit the importation or sale within its border of wheat or butter, or other products of the farm or factory. He did not say that he would vote against the bill, he thought it might be wise to pass it and leave it to the supreme court to pass upon it.

Mr. Rangan said that whatever might be his wish to see temperance promoted in the land, he was not willing to lay his hands on the constitution and bear it down.

Mr. Edmunds remarked upon it as a very curious and interesting circumstance that a condition of things had been reached where, according to the debate, and according to the judgment of the supreme court, the states had no power to deal with the subject, and congress had no power to deal with it.

The result was that there was in every man in one state an inherent individual right to carry into another state that state might not consider it to its safety, thereto sell it, and congress had no power to stop it, and that the states could not stop it, unless the congress gave them that power. He did not believe in the centralization of power; he believed in its segregation and separation in every respect. Speaking of the importation of intoxicating liquors into a state, Mr. Edmunds claimed that, once they get there, they were (whether in the hands of natives or not) the subject of state laws; and that was what the supreme court of the United States would come to within the next twenty years.

After further discussion the bill went over without action, and the senate proceeded to the consideration of resolutions offered by Mr. Cameron in respect to the memory of the late representative, William D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania. Remarks in eulogy of the character and public services of Mr. Kelley were made by Senators Cameron, Morrill, Sherman, Hampton, Hawley and Daniel. At the conclusion of the eulogies, as a further mark of respect, the senate adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The house went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill. Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, in the chair. Heated political debates prolonged the session until away in the night, when Mr. McKinley moved that the committee rise, but this motion was opposed by the Democrats, reinforced by many Republicans.

The chairman declared the motion carried on a division, and thereupon there were vociferous demands for tellers. Tellers were ordered, and the motion to rise was agreed to—81 to 44—and a great deal of confusion; and then the house, at 11:20 p. m., adjourned.

Loan Bureau Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Mr. Stanford introduced in the senate yesterday his promised bill, which creates a United States land bureau for loaning out of a treasury fund of $100,000,000 money to the amount of one-half the assessed value of land, the loans to run for not more than twenty years, and to bear 2 per cent. interest, payable annually. The borrower may pay not less than 25 per cent. of his loan at any time, and draw again up to the full amount at any time within the twenty years.

Kemmler's Case.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The application for a writ of error in the case of Kemmler, under sentence of death by electricity, was heard in the supreme court of the United States yesterday. Roger M. Sherman appeared for the condemned murderer. A decision was not rendered.

Behring Sea Policy.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The question of the Behring sea fisheries was considered at yesterday's cabinet meeting, and it is decided to adhere to the policy of last session.

DISASTROUS FREIGHT WRECK.

Engineer and Fireman Dead and Probably Two Brakemen.

PITTSBURG, May 21.—A special to The Times from Altoona, Pa., says: Reports have just reached here of a disastrous freight wreck, which occurred at Elizabethtown, three miles east of Altoona. A freight train was crossing a switch from one track to another, completely demolishing fifteen cars and an engine, also killing many head of stock.

Engineer William Boyd, of Harrisburg, is reported dead in the wreck, and his fireman, name unknown, is said to have suffered a like fate. It is impossible to obtain information and these rumors may be exaggerated, but there is little doubt as to Boyd's death. Two brakemen are reported missing at this writing, and their names may possibly be added to the list. A wrecking crew has just been dispatched from this city to the scene.

Drove in Front of a Train.

CAMDEN, N. J., May 21.—John C. Walls, the driver of a cab on the Broadway and Sixth street line, drove his car in front of a train on the West Jersey road on Monday night, and was killed. The car was completely wrecked, and seven passengers in it narrowly escaped with their lives. Mrs. Hall, colored, had her legs crushed and Mrs. Hester Pennington was badly injured about the head. The passengers say that there was no warning given by the engineer.

A Convention of Brewers.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The city is filling up with delegates to the National brewers' convention which meets here to-day. A reception was tendered the delegates last night at Grand Army hall, addresses of welcome being made by Commissioner Douglass and Mr. Chris Heinrich. President Loften, of the National brewers' convention, responded on the part of the delegates.

Struck for Nine Hours.

BUFFALO, May 21.—Between 600 and 700 union mill hands struck Tuesday morning for a nine-hour day, the employers having decided to refuse their demand. Later about 100 of the strikers returned to work, their mills having granted them the nine hours asked for.

Dynamite Explosion.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 21.—In Tepic yesterday a deposit of dynamite exploded causing considerable damage to property. Four persons were killed and six wounded.

Excitement in Sofia.

Trial of Count Panitza and Captain Kolobkoff.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY.

This Trial is of Great Political Importance, and is Liable to Cause Serious Trouble Between Russia and Austria. Fear That an Attempt at Rescue Will Be Made, and the Garrison is Under Arms—Other Foreign News.

VIENNA, May 21.—The trial of Maj. Panitza, of the Bulgarian service, and Const. A. Panitza, first, and promises to be one of the most interesting and exciting trials ever held in Serbia.

The Russian government has been moving heaven and earth to have Panitza and his co-conspirators released, but without avail, and a full disclosure of the proceedings of its agents to overthrow the reigning prince and subvert the government is now sure to be made. The trial accordingly assumes the importance of political event, involving the relations of a Russia and Austria and likely to lead to grave complications.

The city of Sofia is in a highly excited condition this morning. A great number of strangers are noticed among the throngs around the building where the trial is going on, and there are fears that an attempt will be made to rescue the prisoners by force. The entire garrison is under arms and Prince Ferdinand is in council with his ministers at the palace.

Cause of the Siberian Uprising.

BERNE, May 21.—The Swiss Croix Federale gives an account by an eyewitness of an incident preceding the recent massacre of Siberian prisoners at Taratof. The governor general of Siberia ordered a woman named Konalskain, who was dying of consumption at Verkhutinsk, to be removed. She was unable to rise from her bed, but four soldiers dragged her in a semi-nude condition, her single garment hanging in rags, to the court yard, where she died. During the sledge journey other female prisoners demanded the removal of Governor Bebroisky for cruelty, hence the shooting by the soldiers.

Famous "600" Survivors.

LONDON, May 21.—Elaborate preparations are making for the coming exhibition in aid of the fund for the survivors of famous "Six Hundred," whose memorable charge against the Russians at Balaklava, on Oct. 25, 1854, was one of the most daring cavalry onslaughts on record, and at the same time the most disastrous to the attacking party. Lord Tennyson has spoken the stirring verses of "The Charge of the Light Brigade" into a phonograph, which Col. Gouraud will furnish as one of the most prominent exhibits.

Might Have been Blackmail.

LONDON, May 21.—Dr. Selarf, a Lutheran clergyman of considerable prominence in Schleswig, has been sentenced to a long term of imprisonment for criminally assaulting a young woman who was a member of his congregation. Strong efforts were made by his friends to secure his acquittal in consideration of his calling and his hitherto blameless life, but the evidence against him was so direct and overwhelming that nothing could save him from conviction.

This Story Comes From France.

PARIS, May 21.—The Temps publishes a dispatch from Senegal stating that the French have captured Segnon and Ousebongan after conflicts with the Dahomeyans. The forces of the Dahomeyans at the battle of Ousebongan, which took place on April 29, numbered 1,550. All of them were killed. The French lost 125 killed and fifty wounded.

Ireland's Hope.

LONDON, May 21.—In addressing a Liberal meeting at Lincoln yesterday Mr. Gladstone said that Ireland's hope did not rest in peers or grandees, but in the generous heart, warm sympathy and love for liberty of the people of Great Britain. This hope, please God, would be realized at the first opportunity offered.

Bismarck's Last Plea.

BERLIN, May 21.—The Freisinnige Zeitung says that during the Bismarck crisis, Prince Bismarck appealed to the Empress Frederick to plead with the emperor in his behalf, whereupon the dowager empress replied: "I must not influence my son in political matters."

Increasing Her Squadron.

LONDON, May 21.—The British military has decided to increase the strength of the North American squadron by the addition of four torpedo boats. The vessels are now being made ready and are expected to join the fleet about the middle of June.

Stanley's Wedding Day.

LONDON, May 21.—It is announced that the marriage of Henry M. Stanley to Miss Dorothy Tennant, will take place in Westminster Abbey in July, and that if the explorer undertakes any further expeditions his wife will accompany him.

FLOOD IN NEW YORK.

Heavy Rains Causes Considerable Damage at Several Places.

CANISTEO, N. Y., May 21.—This place is virtually inundated. Two-thirds of the village is covered with water from one to five feet deep. Rain has fallen steadily since early yesterday morning, at times, in perfect torrents.

Purdy creek, a small stream has overflowed, and is now flowing through the main streets, flooding cellars and the buildings situated on the low ground. The water was backed nearly to the center of the village, and is rising at the rate of about one foot per hour. Nearly all business is suspended, and railroad traffic is at a standstill. A large washout has occurred about one mile west of here.

At Hornellsville.

HORNELLVILLE, N. Y., May 21.—A continuous rain for twenty-four hours, commencing Monday noon, resulted in a flood in this city nearly equal to that of last June. Delaware avenue and Riverside, Elizabeth, Oak, John, Pardee and Parnell streets, were completely submerged. Many residences were abandoned. One meat market on Lower Main street, together with several outhouses and a quantity of lumber in other portions of the city are all that is reported, as being swept away. The Erie railway suffered considerable loss by washouts, on the Western and Susquehanna division traffic being suspended entirely until a late hour last night, but at this writing trains are again running.

In the Mohawk Valley.

UTICA, N. Y., May 21.—The water in the Mohawk valley is higher than it has been in several years. The heavy rains have caused the river to overflow its banks and the flat lands are flooded.

At Lion the Erie canal overflowed its banks on both sides and did considerable damage. The collars all along several streets are filled with water.

At Frankfort Mayers creek, which runs under the canal and empties into the river, was raging this morning. The stream tore away the banks on each side and did damage which is estimated at $5,000. The water subsided last night and no further danger is feared.

In Pennsylvania.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., May 21.—One of the severest rain storms ever known in this section ended yesterday. Rain fell steadily from 7 o'clock Monday a. m. until 10 o'clock last night. Basements were flooded, roads spoiled and houses undermined. Richmond's shoe factory was torn to pieces, and drifted down the river. Railroad tracks were submerged and suburban bridges carried away. The loss will be large.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Proceedings of the Assembly in Session at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 21.—At the morning's session of the Presbyterian assembly the board of missions reported that the board has organized two Sunday schools per day during the past year and every second day a church. This was accomplished at an average cost of $450 per minister. In New Mexico and Texas many Roman Catholics are joining the Presbyterian church. The work of the women's executive committee during the year was especially effective. It raised the sum of $326,627 as against $246,680 raised by all the churches.

The afternoon session of the assembly was taken up in discussing the charges against the board of publication. The business transactions of the board were severely criticised on one hand and defended on the other. The matter was still under debate when the session adjourned.

The question of revision is still in its preliminary stage. The committee on changing the constitution will come in with its second report Thursday morning, when the debate will be renewed and, it is expected, will be more to the question direct than the debate already had. The committee was in session several hours yesterday wrestling with the knotty adopting problem.

M. E. CONFERENCE SOUTH.

The Church Pledged to Support Prohibition.

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—In the Methodist-Episcopal general conference yesterday, the committee on temperance presented a lengthy report in favor of prohibition. It says: "We are emphatically a prohibition church. We stand out squarely and before the whole world, certainly in theory and for the most part in practice, for the complete suppression of the liquor traffic. We are opposed to all forms of license for this iniquity, whether the same be high or low."

The report was ingeniously written, in that it committed the church to prohibition in such a way that those who feared such action would involve the church in politics were disarmed.

A contest was expected, but there was no opposition. The report was applauded and the vote to adopt was unanimous.

Ends With Resign.

COLUMBUS, O., May 21.—William E. Bodine, president of Kenyon college, has written a lengthy letter to Bishop Boyd Vincent declaring his intention of resigning. He urges the proposed changes in the management of the famous institution, whereby the bishop's powers are abridged and the president is made the head of the entire institution instead of one department. To avoid the charge that he is trying to increase his own powers Bodine will resign.

Run Down By a Train.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—An incoming passenger train on the Pan-Handle yesterday, struck and fatally injured the wife of David White, of Carthage, at Oakley, O., seven miles from this city. The injured woman was brought to this city on the same train and taken to the Samaritan hospital. The physicians think that she cannot live.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, 1890.

For Judge of the Superior Court,

L. W. ROBERTSON,

of Maysville,

Subject to the action of the Democratic party.

HON. RODNEY HAGGARD, of Winchester, will not be a candidate for Superior Court Judge. He was urged to make the race, but has declined.

LAST Sunday the saloons at Covington, with few exceptions, were wide open, and there were twenty-five drunken and disorderly persons arrested during the day. The Sunday before the saloons were closed, and not a single arrest had to be made. Comment is unnecessary.

REPUBLICANS talked a good deal during the last National campaign about abolishing the tax on tobacco, and "resolved" in favor of it. Their Representatives in Congress have repudiated their platform by refusing to adopt an amendment to their tariff bill to remove all taxes on the "weed." They have probably "heard" from the people, and now realize that it won't do to vote for "free whisky and free tobacco" as long as the necessities of life are taxed so heavily.

THE Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Appellate Clerk promises to be a lively affair. None of the aspirants will go into the meeting with sufficient votes to nominate, and there will be a fine opening for "combines." Reports so far received from the county conventions last Saturday show that Madden has on first instruction, 179; Longmoor, 136; Adams, 119; Martin, 101; Poore, 69; Van Zant, 30; French, 16; Brinkley, 13. On second instruction Martin leads with 39; Longmoor has 37; Adams, 28; Poore, 25, and Madden, 17.

Why Not Give It a Trial?

The people of Maysville and Mason County have been talking about free turnpikes for several years. The plan mentioned yesterday is regarded as the most feasible and most equitable yet suggested to all parties concerned.

It is just and fair to the companies, as the bill referred to provides they shall be paid their gate receipts, the average for the past five years being taken as a basis. The companies will still retain control of the roads and will be required to keep them in repair. The county will pay the gate receipts, a special levy for that purpose being necessary, and in return for the taxes thus paid travel will be made free to all.

The plan could be given a thorough test in one year. If it should not prove a success and entirely satisfactory to the people it could then be abolished.

CHARLES MCCARTHEY made the quickest trip on record from this section to Seattle. It usually requires about seven days, but he made close connection with the trains at Cincinnati and Chicago, and reached his destination in four days and sixteen hours. This was getting over the country at a regular Nellie Bly gait.

MR. J. JAMES WOOD was honored with a position on the Committee on Home Missions at the annual meeting of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church in session at Asheville, N. C. The total receipts of the assembly last year for home missions amounted to $76,243 87, $13,304 14 more than the previous year.

MR. WM. SCHATZMAN'S home on Market street was the place where two happy hearts were united as one on yesterday at 2 o'clock p. m. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Repke and the parties united in wedlock were Mr. Charles W. Sickinger and Miss Sophia Keller. It was strictly a family wedding, nobody being invited or present except relatives. Mr. Jacob Lynn and wife officiated as groomsmen and bridesmaid. The novelty of the wedding was that the groom can speak only German, while the bride speaks English fluently. Peace, prosperity and happiness for the couple through life is the wish of the friend who furnishes this notice.

MR. JOHN T. CHERRY, of Keokuk, Iowa, and Miss Kate C. Osborne, of this city, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at 11 o'clock this morning at St. Patrick's Church by the venerable pastor, Rev. Father Glorieux. The bride is a most exemplary young lady and enjoys the love and esteem of her many acquaintances. The groom is a young and prosperous merchant of Keokuk. The bride was attired in a beautiful blue cloth dress, with embroidered front. After the ceremony the couple drove to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding breakfast awaited them. They will leave this evening for their Western home, with the good wishes of a host of friends. The ushers were Messrs. D. Desmond and John Mahoney.

Advertised Letter List.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Maysville, Mason County, Ky., for the week ending Tuesday, May 20, 1890:

Jefferson, J. C.	Bum, Emily (package)
Jacobs, Mr. Teula
Monobrag, Bridget

Persons calling for any of the above will please say advertised.

THOMAS A. DAVIS, P. M.

Good Luck.

Charles H. Johnson, a driver for Wm. Richardson of 102 Sudbury street, in the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery was the happy holder of one-twentieth of ticket $132, which drew the first capital prize of $300,000, and received as his share the neat little fortune of $15,000. Mr. Johnson is a quiet young fellow who intends to put his easily acquired money to a good use.—Boston (Mass.) Herald, March 27.

MR. HARRY WALSH formerly an attaché of the BULLETIN office, has taken a position with L. Hill & Co., as salesman. Harry will be glad to have all of his old friends call on him when they want anything in the grocery line.

MR. H. T. BOULDEN, of Sardis, a brother of Mr. John W. Boulden of the First National Bank, is the architect who is erecting Mr. James Asbury's residence and Mr. Elzie Payton's residence, mentioned yesterday.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLEICK.

But few tobacco plants set yet, but plenty large enough.
Jonas Myall has been quite sick for several days with something like malaria.
Miss Ida Richard's school closed last Friday.
Prof. Johnson's will close the 23rd inst.
John Hultman has got a bad case of the measles. His brother Robert and family are on the improve.

House cleaning and cold dinners are now in order, and the men have to keep cool. The white-washer is next in order.

Dr. Magnus T. Hopper arrived home from New York last Friday evening, and has every appearance of being well.

Robert Hultman, who has been down with the measles for two weeks, is improving slowly. His three children have not now.

Mrs. Burrow has gone to her home in Cincinnati, after a few days spent pleasantly among friends. She is a devoted mother.

We acknowledge a file of papers of late date from an old friend and former country boy now of Kansas City. May he yet live long and prosper.

J. A. Jackson has a nice line of spring and summer goods cheap for cash, or will take all kinds of country produce, bacon, lard, chickens, &c., in exchange.

Quite an alarm of fire was sounded in this place Wednesday afternoon, May 14. The bucket brigade was out in full force. Judge Howard's chimney was burning out. No damage.

For sale, a fine stock of gent's furnishings goods, all new and well selected, and will rent the room that contains them. Terms reasonable. Call on or address J. A. Jackson, Mayslick, Ky.

Robert P., son of John P. Metcalf, deceased, a native of this county, who moved to Missouri some thirty years ago, is now stopping with his cousin, Frank Pogue. He is in poor health and intends spending some time at Blue Lick Springs.

F. M. Dobyns, who lived on the North Fork, and who died very suddenly last Saturday morning of heart disease, was raised near Mayslick. He was a son of Berry Dobyns. He had many warm friends in this vicinity. He leaves a wife and one child, one brother, H. R. Dobyns, in Missouri, and one sister in this county.

SHANNON.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. F. Perrie are visiting the homes of their Mayslick relatives. Mr. Perrie will be a drawing card for the new bank.

Mrs. Rachel Ray, who has been ill, is on the improve. Her granddaughter, Miss Janie Pollock, of Germantown, was up to see her last week.

Charlie Wood, a Washington boy who married Miss Campbell of Shannon, died at St. Joseph, Mo., last week of typhoid malaria. He was in business there with a brother. He was thirty years old.

The tunnel has to fall in to keep Colonel Craddock from getting to a wedding. Without a serious mishap he is always on hand, and by the way one of the best reporters on wedding or funeral occasions in the State.

Miss Charlie B. Dye, of Sardis, and Miss Nannie B. Dye, of Mayslick, are in Cincinnati perfecting their musical studies—the former at the College of Music and the latter at the Conservatory of Music. The song-birds will be home in June.

Have you met baby Gooding? If not, you have failed to see one of the sweetest babies that has bloomed among the early spring violets, daisies and snow drops of Mayslick. It has an engaging smile when you call it by its pretty name "Effie Pearl."

Executive sale of the Wm. P. Fox, near Mayslick, May 17, through J. C. Fox, auctioneer: Two work mules and $70 per head; eight mule cows, $25 to $30 each; nine yearling steers, $15; calves, $12; a head; 600 bushels of corn, 35 cents per bushel.

"Muple Grove" is putting on all its picturesque beauties—the orchard, meadow and deep wooded wild woods are in their wealth of bloom. Robert Lee Turner and bride, nee Little Laythman, are expected this week. It will be a real holiday occasion.

Several small patches of tobacco were set out last week, and now we have another splendid tobacco season, with but few plants large enough or ground ready. Look out for the first of June for the broad acres to be all covered. Much corn to plant yet. The cut worm is getting in his work.

One of the cleverest of the old Mayslick boys ("Hun" Dobyns), whose ranks are growing smaller and by degrees sadly less, has "passed over the river and is resting under the shade of the trees." His exit was so sudden that even the blindest "huni and farewell" was denied his friends. He had just gone by the seventy-first mile post.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Fox, at Saturday's sale, had a number of special friends to dine with them. Cards, schottish and croquet; music by Mrs. Jake Worthington. The young housekeepers are getting along nicely, and everything is blooming at this famous old homestead of "Rosemont." Lee keeps up the old standard of hospitality.

It requires something worse than a heavy rain fall or miniature hurricane to keep Dave Hechinger away from the "Olivet court sales. He drives heavy trails with merchants along the line and in "Olivet in clothing and $70 per head; eight mule cows, $25 to $30 each; nine yearling steers, $15; calves, $12; a head; 600 bushels of corn, 35 cents per bushel.

Rev. Dr. Anderson took in the Lexington Centennial Thursday and Friday, heard two fine sermons, met a legion of old friends, and a good time generally, returned Saturday and preached at Shannon Sunday. It takes one of the young Americans to get ahead of "the old Doctor." He gets up when the birds are giving their morning concerts—4 o'clock a. m.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach, and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

SAFE DEPOSIT SYSTEM

Adopted by the Bank of Maysville—
A Fire and Burglar Proof Vault
To Be Put In at Once.

The Bank of Maysville has decided to add the safe deposit system to its other business.

This step has been contemplated for some time, and the matter is now definitely settled.

The vault to accommodate this new business will be put in at once. It is the intention to have it completed within the next sixty days. The Macneale & Urban Safe and Lock Work of Cincinnati have the contract.

Mr. X. X. Crum, a representative of the firm, was in town yesterday and gave the BULLETIN some "pointers" as to the construction of this vault. It will be seven and a half feet high, have a width of seven feet seven inches and a depth of six feet three inches. The bottom, top and sides will be constructed of solid steel, two and one-eighth inches thick, and drill and sledge proof. In order to enter the vault one will have to pass through two doors. The outer door will be of solid steel 3 1/2 inches thick, without arbors or spindles. This door will be locked and unlocked by an automatic bolt operating device, the lock being known as the three-movement time lock. The inner door is to be of solid steel also, and have the combination lock generally found on bank vaults. All the metal to be used in the vault will be tempered and made proof against drill, sledge, blow-pipe, wedge and high explosive.

The vault will have a capacity for five hundred safe deposit boxes, but only one hundred and eighty-nine will be put in at present. There will be two keys to each of these boxes, one for the renter of the box and the other for the Cashier of the bank. Both keys have to be used in opening the box. The renter can not open it without the Cashier is present, nor can the Cashier open it without the renter is present. It will be seen that everything is designed for the fullest protection of the renters. The system will afford as secure a place for valuables as can be found anywhere in the land.

Boxes in this vault will be rented to any reputable person and will afford a perfectly safe place for depositing bonds, notes, deeds, jewels, silverware and other valuables. The cost will vary according to the size of the box. The smallest will be rented at $3.00 a year.

The Bank of Maysville is one of the most solid financial institutions in the city and the addition of the safe deposit system to its other business is a move that will be appreciated by its many patrons.

Garfield's Remains.

They are Removed to the New Mausoleum.

A STARTLING DISCOVERY.

The Coffin Opened and a Look at the Dead President's Face Reveals the Fact That His Whiskers Have Grown Two Inches Since His Death.

CLEVELAND, O., May 21.—At an early hour yesterday morning, when Lakeview cemetery was quite free from visitors, the remains of President Garfield were removed from the public vault to the crypt in the monument. This is to be their last resting place. The secret removal of the remains was in accordance with the wishes of Mrs. Garfield, who was opposed to any demonstration or show.

The casket of Garfield was opened and the remains viewed, but the martyr president's sons Harry and James declined to look at their father. The face was well preserved, but the startling fact was learned that the dead man's beard had grown two inches.

The coffin in which the remains were originally placed has for four or five years been encased in a metallic casket of great weight, and eight workmen were required to carry it to the hearse and into the tomb. The remains of the president's mother were also removed to the monument, which is to be dedicated on Memorial Day.

FAILED TO RETURN.

Bank Bookkeeper at Indianapolis Leaves Home Very Mysteriously.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 21.—Business circles are very much agitated over another disappearance, which is as mysterious as that of Abram Cline's some three weeks ago. At 6 o'clock Monday evening William Tremert, bookkeeper at the Commercial bank, left home on an errand for his wife, saying that he would be back in a few minutes.

The errand ended him to the house of M. K. Alexander, two squares away, and when he did not return his wife became uneasy and watched for his return all night. Yesterday morning she was surprised to learn that he did not go to the house on the errand, and the police were notified, but so far have secured no trace of the missing man.

An examination of his books show that they are correct to a cent. It is believed that persons knowing him to be connected with the bank have murdered him, with the hope of finding money on his person.

The officers of the bank are confident that Tremert has met with foul play, and the detective and police forces are searching in every direction for him. Tremert was sober, industrious and capable, and had been married about a year, having a nice home and a most excellent wife.

SENSATION AT OTTAWA.

The British Government Demands an Explanation From Gen. Middleton.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 21.—The sensation of the hour is the announcement that the British government has demanded full explanation as to the case of Gen. Sir Frederick Middleton in connection with the looting of half-breed runners' furs during the late northwest rebellion.

Such offenses are not condoned in the imperial service, of which the erring official is still a member, drawing a big pension from the retired list. His resignation is likely to be forthcoming. If a government investigation is held it is feared certain high dignitaries who received beaver skins will be compromised.

A Missing Novelist.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—A local detective bureau is trying to find some trace of David Christie Murray, the English novelist, whose friends are unable to ascertain his whereabouts. He left London last June for Australia where he delivered a number of lectures. It was his intention to return to England by way of the United States. Nothing has been heard of him since last November, when it was understood he was about to leave Australia for San Francisco.

Shot His Wife and Took Poison.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Ludwig Marquardt, an artist, shot his wife last night and then committed suicide with poison. Mrs. Marquardt will recover. She was employed in Wamamaker's store. The couple had quarreled and separated frequently, owing to jealousy.

The Wound Was Fatal.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Lawyer Clinton G. Reynolds, who was shot in his office at 61 Wall street, last Thursday morning, by young Alphonse S. Stephanie, died at 5 o'clock this morning at the Chambers street hospital. Stephanie is now a prisoner in the Tombs.

Explosion in the Burning Mine.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 21.—At the burning Neilson mine yesterday an explosion of gas occurred, and debris was shot from the shaft a hundred feet in the air. No one was injured. The damage to the shaft has not been learned.

Two Deaths in One Family.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 21.—Early last evening John Maroney, a scoper, fell into the hold of the steam barge Italia, and was instantly killed. His sister, Mrs. Thomas Hanrahan, upon being notified of his death, fell dead from heart disease.

Randall's Successor in Congress.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Richard Vanx was elected to congress from the Third district yesterday. He received over 8,000 votes. His Prohibitionist opponent received 47 votes.

Delaware's Democratic Convention.

DOVER, Del., May 21.—The Democratic state central committee met here yesterday and selected Aug. 12 as the day for holding the Democratic state convention.

SHORTAGE DISCOVERED.

The Treasurer of the Ancient Order of Hibernians Skips Out.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The Sun says: Patrick Hynes, of Greenpoint, L. I., who had served two terms as National treasurer of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, left his home two weeks ago, saying that he was going to attend the convention of the order at Hartford. His friends have not heard from him since, and The Sun intimates that there is a shortage of $1,400 in Hynes' account with the order. The convention elected Thomas J. Dundon, of Ohio, to succeed Hynes as treasurer. Hynes' bondsmen, it is thought, will make good the shortage, and there will be no prosecution.

The Times has a special from Philadelphia stating that when the Hibernians met in Hartford last week a letter was read from Hynes in which he acknowledges having appropriated $2,800 of the money belonging to the order, and further stating that when the letter was read he would be beyond the reach of those he had wronged. The reading of the letter caused great astonishment in the convention, but it was decided to keep the matter a secret. It has since leaked out, however, and there is some apprehension that the defalcation may prove to amount to a greater sum than he has confessed to.

What to Do For the Insane.

BALTIMORE, May 21.—What to do with the insane was the main topic of discussion yesterday at the conference of Charities and Correction. Dr. Richard Gundry, who has made the subject a life study, read a paper which was one of the most interesting heard at the meeting. After the reading of the address comments on it were made by Dr. A. G. Byers, the Rev. Dr. Prondit, the Rev. F. H. Wines and others.

George Francis Train in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 21.—George Francis Train arrived over the Lake Shore at 9 p. m. and left over the Chicago and Northwestern for Tacoma two hours later. A large number of newspaper men and others met him at the Northwestern depot. He raved violently because his telegraphic orders that the dining room be kept open had not been obeyed, and then soothed his feelings by buying out the lunch counter for the benefit of the loungers and emigrants in the depot.

Confessed to Murder.

GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y., May 21.—Cal Wood, who was suspected of the murder of Lemmer Pasco, has confessed his guilt. He says that he had no accomplice in the crime. He secreted himself beside a path in the woods, and when Pasco walked past he shot him in the back. The Wood and Pasco families have long been at feud with one another.

Dry Dock Company Falls.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—Yesterday a deed of assignment for the Cincinnati Dry Dock company, which for over half a century has been doing a business of building and repairing river steamers and barges at 371 Eastern avenue, was filed in the probate court. Paris E. Brown is the assignee. The assets and liabilities are estimated at $20,000 each.

Big Landslide.

CONFLUENCE, Pa., May 21.—The biggest landslide ever known on the east branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad occurred near here last night. The track was carried away and the road bed covered for a quarter of a mile.

A City Treasurer Short.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 21.—A shortage of between $17,000 and $20,000 in the accounts of City Treasurer Peak was discovered yesterday and Mr. Peak was suspended from office pending an official investigation by the council committee. Mr. Peak was elected city treasurer two years ago and was re-elected this spring.
